Aphelele Fassi is one of the most exciting local prospects to have emerged on the scene over the past couple of seasons. A former schoolboy rugby star at Dale College in King William's Town, the lanky Fassi wasted little time to force his way into the Cell C Sharks Carling Currie Cup mix in 2018, earning a winners medal at age 20. A natural ball player, Fassi is deceptively quick and agile for his 1.90m frame, boasts a good skillset and has a rapidly improving kicking game.

Widely regarded as one of the most potent attacking forces in the game despite his diminutive frame. Kolbe moved to French Top 14 side Toulouse in the 2017–2018 season and made his Bok debut in the 2018 Castle Lager Rugby Championship Test against Australia on 8 September. In June 2019 he starred in the Top 14 final winning the French Championship and in 2021 Kolbe won both the European Cup and Top 14 title with Toulouse. Scored one of the tries of the 2019 RWC when the Boks defeated England in the final.

The Springboks' abundance of lineout options have limited the number of appearances for Orie, who played a starring role for the Emirates Lions in the Vodacom Super Rugby and domestic competitions. He has since moved back to Cape Town after signing for the DHL Stormers, while previously he also enjoyed an overseas stint with the Ospreys. Orie made his debut in the Springboks' Test versus Wales on June 2, 2018 in Washington and will be determined to add to his current tally against Georgia.
